

WHERE WE LIVE

is

a place on the surface on the Earth

made of

water, air, soil

that receives

light and warmth from the Sun

where there are

living things

to study them we divide them into groups

animals

plants

seaweeds

fungi

bacterium

according to where they live in we group them by

marine living things

terrestrial living things living things in freshwater